

Biographical Information

Elaine Zielinski

U.S. Department of the Interior

Bureau of Land Management • Arizona

State Director

Education: B.A., Blackburn College, Carlinville, Illinois
M.B.A., University of Colorado, Denver

Experience: 31 Years of Federal Service

Career Highlights:

- Bureau of Land Management - Arizona State Director, Phoenix, AZ
- Bureau of Land Management - Oregon/Washington
Oregon/Washington State Director, Portland, Oregon
Oregon/Washington Deputy State Director for Resources, Portland, Oregon
BLM Eugene Associate District Manager, Eugene, Oregon
- Department of Interior - Washington, DC
Departmental Management Development Program
- Bureau of Land Management - Colorado State Office, Denver, Colorado
Chief, Branch of Planning and Environmental Coordination
Environmental Coordinator
- General Services Administration
Planning and Environmental Specialist - Denver, Colorado
Management Intern - Chicago, Illinois
- Gillette Company - Chicago, Illinois
Financial Accountant

Accomplishments you are most proud of:

Leading executive forum in the Pacific Northwest that improved cooperation and communication among the agencies and governments vital to implementing the Northwest Forest Plan. Mentoring employees to help them achieve their full potential.

Personal Information & Interests:

Place of Birth: Belleville, Illinois

Married; Husband, Bill; son, Paul

Interests include: Walking for fun and exercise, reading, traveling, collecting baskets, spending time with my family.

Components of a Successful Lifestyle:

Balance. Fun. Challenges. Having a job you love. Friends. Family. Defining success in your own way.